

To My Father

-PBC

The word "father" cannot be expressed.

In a sentence,

The emotion that comes from my heart.

You taught me how to walk,

You have given me an abundance of love.

You have been a pillar of strength and wisdom in my life.

You taught me how to rectify the mistakes.

You have made me smile without tears.

You have sacrificed your complete life for me,

What did you save yourself?

You have carried many things on your shoulder alone.

You have raised me without knowing the pain...

You have been the best companion in my life.

You have been a constant presence in my life.

I am so lucky to have your love and guidance in my life.

Thank you, dad, for being the backbone of my life.
