

Words For You Dad

-PBC

I've always cherished
Your backing and direction.
Your advice, a constant companion,
I've walked in its path.
My heart's whispers, my life's moments,
Shared openly with you.
The tapestry of my actions, past and present,
Unfurled before you.
But did my heart's murmurs reach you?
Did you witness the weight of my battles?
Did you ever glimpse the world through my eyes?
